You've Got A Lot of Style! A Quick Trip Through 4 Centuries of Musical Style

For more than 4 centuries composers have used the same 12 notes of the musical scale to create an incredible variety of sounds, textures, and emotional meaning in their music. They have used the same notes...but it is HOW they used those 12 notes that makes the all difference in the style!

Ms. Smith's Bowl of Notes, a delightful romp through 4 centuries of music opens the ears of new concertgoers-- young and old--to discoveries of the Baroque, Classical, Romantic, and 20th Century periods as ever-evolving musical styles leading up to...what?

What will those 12 notes become in the hands of Ms. Smith?
